Sam and Susan are brother and sister. They live in Taipei now. They went to Tainan to see their grandma last Friday. They went there by train. They helped their grandma to paint her house and to clean all the rooms on Friday morning. Then they cooked lunch and made cookies together. In the afternoon, they rode a bike to the park. They did exercise there with their grandma. They didn't go back to their grandma's house until the evening. They ate dinner together. After dinner, they watched TV, sang and danced to the music. Their grandma said, "My sweet heart, you are energetic! Maybe we can climb the mountains next time." "Of course, we can also go fishing and swimming together," said Susan. Sam and Susan had a good time in Tainan.
