Carla: What are you doing?

Abel: I am eating my breakfast. I'm so hungry.

Carla: But you can't eat here!

Abel: Sorry, I see. What are you looking at?

Carla: I'm looking at Woman in a Hat. What a beautiful painting!

Abel: Well, I don't like the use of colors in it. It is too strong and too bright for me.

By the way, the woman in the painting doesn't look like a real one. She is not beautiful.

Carla: It is a painting of fauvism.

Abel: What is fauvism?

Carla: Fauvism means wild animals. In these paintings, you can see lots of strong and bright colors. The people in these paintings don't look like real ones. Art works of fauvism are very different from the paintings before the year 1900, like the Mona Lisa. Which do you like, Woman in a Hat or the Mona Lisa?
