Remember not to camp near rivers. If it rains heavily at night, you'll be in big trouble.

Jimmy : Oh! I can't agree with Carl more. It's not fun to camp in the rain. Do check out the weather at all times of the day, or it may surprise you! I still remember the terrible experience last month. Camping in the rain was too dangerous! Jason and I had to go back home from the mountains right away. We packed everything in a hurry.

Wilson : It was appalling. It's better to be safe than sorry. Also, be careful with the fire. Don't light a candle in or near a tent. You have to keep away from the campfires, too.

Owen : Got it. How do you usually pack camping meals?

Carl : Make ready-to-eat meals before you go. It's convenient for you to bring some precooked or smoked food. Don't forget to carry enough water. Never drink from lakes or rivers. The water in them might not be clean. Have a nice camping!
