You can't talk about Chinese pop music without thinking of A-mei. She's popular not only in Taiwan but also all over the world. But how did she make it?

A-mei was born in Taitung on August 9, 1972. She has eight brothers and sisters. She has had a great talent for music since she was little. When A-mei was in high school, her father encouraged her to join a popular singing show on TV. A-mei made the trip to Taipei – and she won! However, A-mei's father didn't live long enough to see her great success. Later, she was invited to sing a song for a popular Taiwanese TV show. Because millions of people watched the show and listened to her song, people in Taiwan began to know her voice. After she made her first album, Sisters, in 1996, it became a big hit. By releasing sixteen albums, Mandopop fans around the world know and love her. She is now a world superstar!
