Amazon Rainforest on Fire

Meg: You know what? Dismal News said there were many big fires in the Amazon rainforest. Many animals there lost their home or died in those fires.
Dad: Really? That's sad! Did that happen before?
Meg: Yes, every year there are fires in the rainforest, but this year it's more serious because people burn the rainforest for crops and cows.
Dad: How can we help?
Meg: We can do two things. First, tell our family and friends about the fires. Second, give money to groups trying to stop fires and protect the rainforest.
Dad: That's a good idea.
Meg: Let's save the Amazon rainforest together!
