Doris: Hi, Sandy. How was your summer vacation?

Sandy: It was really great. I went to Scotland with my family. We visited many beautiful places there and went to my uncle's wedding.

Doris: Your uncle's wedding! Is there anything different?

Sandy: Sure. My uncle got a clock from the best man.

Doris: A clock? In Taiwan, people don't give clocks as gifts because it means someone might die. Does giving a clock mean something good for your uncle's wedding?

Sandy: Of course. In Scotland, it brings good luck to my uncle's marriage.

Doris: What a special wedding!

Sandy: That's right. How about your vacation?

Doris: I went to Tamsui with my friends. We went biking along the river first. Then, we had lunch at a restaurant on the old street. After that, we went to Fort Santo Domingo, and then we went home.

Sandy: Cool!
